CIRCULAR SAWS!

Made Without Hammering.

The SIMONDS saws are straightened by means of heat and pressure, and without hammering and are warranted superior to hammered saws for the following reasons

The success of the process requiring a uniform heat, insures a perfectly uniform temper and they file and set in a more satisfactory manner

Being free from uneven strain or buckle they stand up to their work better

As the steel is left in a natural condition by this process, the saws retain their original shape, or so much as they are reduced in use thus avoiding the necessity an expensive of re hammering

Being made of a higher quality of steel than it is practical to use by the old method they hold an edge longer

Large circular mill saws can be run at any reasonable speed with equally good results,—saws 50 inches in diameter having been tested from 400 to 1250 turns a minute with perfect satisfaction,—while hammered saws must be in numerous different cases for different speeds

The SIMONDS SAW received at the Centennial, a Medal, Diploma and the following report of the Board of Judges

Circular Saws of beautiful finish and form, and in original ability in the method of manufacture

A trial of the SIMONDS SAWS will satisfy any mill man that he cannot afford to use hammered saws

THE OREGON ELECTORAL VOTE

A GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF THE CRONIN PERFORMANCE AND THE CASTING OF THE ELECTORAL VOTE

WASHINGTON, Dec 29—The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections began the examination of witnesses in the Oregon case to-day Watts Odell and Cartwright the Republican electors of that State, Benjamin Simpson Surveyor General of Oregon, George Steele chairman of the Oregon State Republican Committee and Stephen Chadwick Secretary of State arrived here yesterday morning Chadwick and Odell were partially examined to day Odell testified substantially as follows, his statement being the best connected history of the Oregon case that has as yet been given

ELECTOR ODELL'S TESTIMONY

Dr Watts, one of the Republican candidates on the electoral ticket of Oregon, was on the 7th of November last postmaster of Lafayette Oregon, and for a few days afterward, but before Nov 15 his resignation was accepted About the middle of last month Watts and Odell, two of the Republican electors, called upon Mr Chadwick, Secretary of State and asked him what he intended to canvass the vote of the State, requesting at the same time that the Republican electors might be present and witness it Mr Chadwick made no objection to this, and subsequently informed them that the canvass would be made Dec 4 at 2 1 M At that time the Republican electors were present with about fifty other witnesses The canvass of the vote was then made in the presence of Gov Grover and the vote announced as follows Odell 15,206, Cartwright, 15,214, Watts 15 206, Laswell 14 149, Klippel 14 136, and Cronin 14 1o7 The Cooper ticket had about 210 votes

After the result had been announced Gov Grover said that a protest had been filed again t issuing a certificate to Mr Watts, and that he proposed to hear an argument upon that question and agreed sit in the Supreme Court room at 10 30 A M the next day for that purpose At that time Senator Kelly appeared with others prepared to argue the case at great length on the part of the Democrats The Republicans made no argument but filed a protest against the assumption by the Governor of judicial powers in attempting to pass upon Mr Watts's eligibility In the protest they cited the law and the precedents as they understood them on which their objections were based Senator Kelly and the other attorneys continued their arguments from 10 30 in the morning until 11 o clock at night

A PRECONCERTED PLAN

On the day the canvass was made and immediately after Gov Grover announced that he would hear arguments the Republicans prepared a written demand citing the statute of Oregon as authority and asserting that the Secretary of State should make out at once two certificates of election and deliver them to the Republicans about whose success there was no question attaching them to his signature and the seal of the State and that he should present them to Gov Grover for his signature This request was handed to the Secretary of State at his residence on the same evening and he agreed to furnish the certificates the next morning. When called upon the next day he still declined giving as a reason that the Governor had the tabulated statement in his office, but promised to do it as soon as he could procure a copy of the statement, which he thought would be by noon of that day At noon he still postponed making out the certificates for the same reasons given in the morning In the evening he promised that he would certainly furnish the certificates by 10 o'clock the next morning At about 11 o clock on the morning of the 6th the Republican candidates for electors called at the executive office for the purpose of having an interview with the Governor Gov. Grover replied that his office was occupied, but that he would find a room for them and showed them to a committee room opening out of the Senate Chamber in the Capitol building When asked when and where he would furnish the electors their certificates he replied "In this room at the hour of 12 to-day." The Republican electors did not leave the place They soon discovered evidences of preconcerted action of some sort between Gov Gover and the Secretary of State and Patrick Cronin About half past 11 the Secretary of State formally delivered the room in which they were to the Republican electors, saying that it was their room and that the key was in the door He said it was customary for the electors to have a room to themselves, and that they had a right to control it in their own way

Before noon Laswell, Klippel, and Cronin came into the room, and the door—there being only one—was closed Just as the town clock struck 12 some kind of a signal was given on the outside of the door It consisted of a short, quick rap The Republican electors had observed that Cronin watched the town clock, which could be plainly seen from the room and that a moment before 12 he went toward the door, leaned his back against the wall beside it, and placed his hand upon the knob On hearing the signal he opened the door a few inches and received from the hands of the Secretary of State through the small crack an envelope, closing the door. Cronin retired a few steps into the room, took a slip of paper out of the envelope, and read substantially as follows "This is to certify that in the election for the office of Presidential electors, held in the State of Oregon, Nov. 7, 1876, W. H Odell received 15,206 votes, J C Cartwright 15,214 votes, and E. A Cronin 14 157 votes" He there stopped short in the reading and did not resume Mr Watts requested Cronin to read the statement again in order that he might make a note of the votes, but Cronin put the paper into his inner coat pocket Cronin has asserted that Cartwright appreciated him with the intention of snatching the paper from his hands. This is denied by the witness. Cronin is said to have held the paper very tightly with both hands while reading it as if to guard it from him

A LOOK

A LOOK AT THE CERTIFICATES DEMANDED.

The Republican electors then asked Cronin if those were the certificates from the Governor. He said that they were [illegible] the members of the college, as they were the property of the college, and that it was necessary to produce them in order that the college should know how to act. The [illegible] Cartwright then moved that the Republican electors [illegible] and perpetuate [illegible] accordingly [illegible] Cronin then rose and said "You are refusing to act with me in this electoral college The president of the college replied No, Sir we cannot proceed with this business until we know by what authority you claim to sit in this college When that authority is produced, we will then decide upon your right to act" Mr Cartwright then said "You must not go away from this table and ever say that we refused to act with you in this college If you have any right to sit in this college, show us the evidence of it

MEETING OF THE COLLEGE

Cronin then withdrew from the table to a remote corner of the room and never returned to act with the college The President then declared that there was a vacancy in the college and upon motion of the secretary Watts was chosen to fill it by a viva voce vote in accordance with law The college then cast its vote for Hayes and Wheeler The president of the college was then directed to demand of the secretary of State a certified transcript of the official vote for electors and a certified detailed statement of the vote of the State by counties These certificates, which were as required originals and not copies were form ded and sent to the electors in the room where they were waiting for them They were properly attached to the proceedings and were inclosed in the returns as made out by the college They are thus the electors claim the regular official certified returns of the State bearing its broad seal After Cronin withdrew from the table to a remote corner of the large room he was not closely observed by the Republican electors They did notice however that Cronin called in two persons Miller and Parker both Democrats, and they understand that those persons pretend to have acted in some way as a Democratic electoral college in that corner of the room They came into the room through the only door which was guarded by John Minto who had been selected by the Republican as Messenger He did not interfere with their entrance, and the assertion by the Democrats that the Republicans guarded the door is therefore trivial Odell says that he never heard it intimated that Watts was a postmaster until after the election George Steele, chairman of the Republican State Committee never knew or heard that Watts was a postmaster until nearly a week after the election

Regular Secretion Essential to Health

The regular secretion and flow of the gastric juices, and of the bile with the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters promotes are effected when digestion materially to the restoration of health when the system is disordered Food does not digest in the dyspeptic stomach because the gastric fluid is deficient, superabundant or vitiated—the liver becomes congested and the bowels constipated because the supply of bile is inadequate or misdirected The Bitters, rectifies all this and removes every ill consequence of non assimilation and irregularity Furthermore, it maintains the action of the kidneys by which impurities are sought to be thrown from the blood and any tendency in the urinary organs to grow sluggish and disordered is counteracted Whether it be used as a means of regulating gastric or bilious secretion and relieving the overloaded bowels or to promote complete and therefore health ful nutrition Hostetter's Bitters may be relied upon with confidence to accomplish the end in view eod&w 1anl

THE NEW LEGISLATURE.

The new Legislature of Maine will organize to-morrow and the caucuses for the nomination of candidates for the various offices will be held this evening. In the Senate Gen Thomas W. Hyde, who filled the chair so gracefully during the last session, will have no competitor except Senator Kyes, of Franklin, who may possibly withdraw his name from the caucus in view of the general desire for General Hyde's re-election

For the Speakership of the House there are three candidates, Messrs Nealley, of Bangor, Cleaves, of Portland, and Haynes of Augusta, representing respectively the Eastern, the Western and the Central sections of the State The canvass has been of the most amicable character, and it is conceded on all hands that either of the three gentlemen would fill the position with credit Advices from all parts of the State, however, furnish us the most abundant reasons for confidence that our accomplished fellow-citizen Mr. Nealley, will be supported by a decisive majority of the members, and in fact those who have had occasion to inform themselves as to the views of the various delegations, have for some time regarded his nomination as practically assured.

This has been the result of no undue solicitation although Mr Nealley has not affected indifference to the compliment of being chosen to such a post of honor, but aside from his eminent qualifications it is recognized that as between the three sections presenting candidates, the East has a decided and emphatic superiority of claim Since 1860 the Speakership has not been awarded East of the Kennebec but twice in sixteen years, while during that period it has been given to Kennebec County five times and to the Central section seven times, and to the Western section seven times, the incumbents being taken from Portland and Gorham no less than four times within the last five years. We find further that Penobscot County has furnished the Speaker but once since 1861, while Bangor has had but one occupant of the chair since the State was organized against five terms awarded to Portland and three to Augusta.

The record shows that Cumberland and Kennebec have continuously furnished the Speakers at every session since 1868, excepting one from Cumberland's associate county of York in 1871, the city of Portland being represented in the chair in 1874 and 1875 while Col. Robie, of Gorham, who is almost as strongly claimed by Portland was Speaker in 1872 and again last year

As a general rule we do not regard the claim of locality as entitled to primary consideration but in the present case we do not think that there will be any claim of such superior personal qualifications of other candidates as should outweigh the reasonable expectations of this section The fact that both Cumberland and York are presenting candidates for the more permanent office of State Treasurer, from which a citizen of Bangor is about voluntarily to retire, certainly must further weaken any claim that Cumberland may present for another term of the Speakership which that County has held uninterruptedly for the last three sessions We feel confident that these and other considerations will insure Mr Nealley a decided majority at the first balloting in the Republican caucus to-night.

The next important political duty of the Legislature will be the election of United States Senator, and it is matter of pride for the Republicans of Maine and of gratification to the Republicans of the whole Union that no Republican has offered to compete for the honor which the people of his State desire to bestow upon her distinguished statesman, JAMES G. BLAINE — Already called to that position by our noble Governor and in accordance with the unanimous expression of a Republican State Convention it remains for the Legislature of Maine to confirm in the most emphatic and signal manner the popular tribute to the splendid abilities, undaunted courage, and unyielding patriotism, which have gained for Mr Blaine an almost unparalleled enthusiasm throughout the loyal States of the Union as the Great Republican Leader

THE "BOUNDING BANNING" Notice has been sent to Washington on behalf of Judge Stanley Matthews of Cincinnati that the seat of Mr Banning in the next House will be contested. Mr. Banning is the man who made the recent war speech in the House. He was elected by a nominal majority of 65 votes | Since the election evidence has accumulated that Judge Matthews was defeated by fraudulent votes A dozen or more of Banning's strongest supporters are now on their way to the Penitentiary for illegal voting and others have fled the city to escape prosecution Judge Matthews is not at all anxious for the seat, but the people of the district are not content that a man of Banning's calibre should represent them when they have elected a better one. Judge Matthews has therefore reluctantly consented to make the contest, and those who are familiar with the circumstances of the election entertain no doubt that he will establish his right to the seat.

A Washington special says the Democrats reluctantly concede that Florida and South Carolina have given their Electoral votes to Hayes, and they are now concentrating their strength on Louisiana. Meanwhile the Republicans are quietly investigating the votes of some Democratic States and it has already been proved beyond a doubt that the vote of Kentucky is illegal. In many precincts the Judges of Election had lists of the Electors and asked the voters as they presented themselves whether they were for Tilden or for Hayes, checking or professing to check their lists of Electors accordingly. Ex-Attorney General Stanbury, among others, admits that he voted in this way, and that he was not aware who the Electors were.

One of Mr. Tilden's statesmanlike schemes is an attempt to throw out the vote of Colorado, as a last resort. The Senate have unanimously admitted the Colorado Senators, and the majority of the House Judiciary Committee have directed Judge Lynde to report that Representative Belford is entitled to his seat. But a minority [illegible] by Young lawyer named Hurd, who ran Belford at the last election, will present a report questioning the admission of Colorado, this report having been revised and corrected at the Tilden headquarters in New York. How lofty are the methods of "political reform"!!!

A DEMOCRATIC WITNESS.

Mr. Pasco, Chairman of the Louisiana Democratic State Committee, admitted, before the House Investigating Committee, that he prepared and sent out the famous "intimidation" circular, previous to the last campaign. This circular urged that the result of the election should be spoken of as a foregone conclusion, as "we have the means of carrying it and intend to do so" The circular recommended that there should be frequent meetings of all the clubs to be formed, and occasionally they should form at their several places of meeting, and proceed thence on horseback to the central rendezvous, stating that "proceedings of this character would impress the negroes with a sense of your united strength," and it is further advised that on the day of election at each polling place there should be affidavits prepared to the effect that "there has been no intimidation and no disturbance on account of any efforts by the Democratic Conservative party to prevent any one from voting on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude" To most people all this looks very much like systematic organizing "on the Mississippi Plan"

THE OREGON FRAUD.

There is quite a story connected with the endeavors of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections to ascertain the facts about the alleged improper use of $8,000 in connection with the canvass and certificate of the Oregon Electoral vote It is said that Senator Kelly, of Oregon, being in San Francisco, had decided to come East, the election being over and the Republicans under Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, having had at Portland a jollification over the recognized success of the Republican party, in which Senator Kelly socially joined Both Senators left San Francisco for Washington on the same train with Senator Morton When not many miles on their journey Senator Kelly received "a hatful of telegrams," to use the language of one of his fellow-passengers He immediately determined to go back to San Francisco and thence to Oregon A rumor was immediately circulated on the train that among the despatches received by Kelly was one from Democratic headquarters in New York, if not directly from Mr Tilden himself, instructing him to return to Oregon and see that one Democratic vote in its Electoral-College was secured With this, it is now asserted, that other telegrams were sent from New York to other persons, saying that money would not be wanting to aid in securing this much desired result Evidence will it is further more said, be offered, through Republican officials in Oregon and telegraph operators, to show the use of this money. Senator Morton says he is confident that his committee will be able to trace up the matter even without the original telegrams asked for from the Western Union Telegraph Company, but if they could have been obtained he is quite sanguine that the whole case would be proven

SOUTH CAROLINA AS SEEN BY A NORTHERN MAN

The Providence Journal publishes the following extract from a private letter written to a gentleman in that city by friend who is on a brief visit to South Carolina and bears date 'Senate Chamber Columbia, December 18, 1876

"I don't think there is much prospect of a collision here at present between the two governments The Hampton men have made a botch of the whole thing, and have put themselves in so many contradictory and inconsistent positions that they have no legal ground to stand on President Grant will undoubtedly recognize Chamberlain as the legitimate Governor and his Legislature as the legitimate Legislature, and the Hampton farce will gradually fizzle out

"I am surprised at the ability displayed by the negro officials and members of the Legislature. They would not suffer much in comparison with an average New England legislature, although most of them were slaves before the war I attended the commencement of the University of South Carolina last week, and the orations of the graduates were fully up to the average of similar productions at Northern universities The salutatory, by a negro named Dart, formerly a slave in Charleston, was very fine, and General Banks said it would do credit to Harvard University Most of the students in the University of South Carolina now are negroes, the whites having all left when negroes were admitted four years ago The only class of people in South Carolina to-day who are making any improvement are the negroes The whites are retrograding The sons of the old planters are neither getting an education nor following any occupation, but spend their time in drinking whiskey, cursing the Republicans and shooting niggers It is a terrible state of society here and I will not be surprised if it results eventually in a war of races. Reconstruction was a total failure. The rebels should never have been allowed to participate in the Government they attempted to destroy"

AN OREGON OPINION

As a fair indication of the general feeling in Oregon concerning Gov Grover's disgraceful course, we cite the following extract from an editorial in a non-partisan journal, the Oregon City Enterprise, of Dec 15th

We are of the opinion that if Governor Grover had permitted Messrs. Cartwright and Odell to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr Watts' ineligibility, it would have been no small feather in his head-dress The Independent voters of this and every State would have commended his honest course, and for the few fire-eating Democrats he would lose, he would gain the good will of ten honor-loving men. As it now is, Gov Grover and Mr Cronin are politically dead—and they have dug their own graves Honorable Democrats, whose instincts lift them above mere party spirit, keenly feel the outrage committed on the voters of this State and are no less severe in their denunciation of Governor Grover's course than the most rabid Radicals. We regret very much that a gentleman of Gov. Grover's fine character should be smirched by resorting to such trickery for party gain, and hope that while at Washington, by indefatigable working for the good of the State he has disgraced, he will in some measure wipe away the stain

Chief Justice Randall, of Florida, on Saturday said to the N. Y Times correspondent at Jacksonville, regarding the bearing of the decision of the Supreme Court in the mandamus case on the National question, that the rights of no person were decided by the Court, and that it did not add one particle to evidence that Tilden had carried the State. It was, he said, simply a question as to what was the duty of the State Board of Canvassers which the Court had to deal with, and if any of Tilden's friends found any encouragement in the action of the Court, it only showed in what desperate need of encouragement they stood. The Chief Justice, speaking outside of his position, has no doubt that Hayes is entitled to the Electoral vote of Florida.

Wade Hampton has written a gushing letter to Gov. Hayes and a similar one to Tilden, and a Washington special says the Democrats there are very much disgusted with Hampton for sending the letter to Hayes, and have written and telegraphed him their opinion on the subject. They say he is asking too much of Republicans. He has been in correspondence with Mosby and other reconstructed rebels too much to please his Democratic friends.

Senator Christiancy, who is a member of the Senate Committee of Investigation, is reported to have said that it would be an impeachment of the state of society in South Carolina to have the whole Sioux tribe moved into the State and established there.

TILDEN CAUGHT

[Cor. Boston Advertiser.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31? There is regularly sent out from here to Democratic papers a statement to the effect that the Republicans are demoralized, and that the party cannot hold together in harmony until the fourth of March. Letters are being received here in large numbers by members of Congress making inquiries concerning the truth of these oft repeated reports. They are utterly false. On the contrary, the Democrats are weakening considerably, are talking of throwing Hendricks overboard, and are very much disconcerted about the reports that southern Democrats are trying to treat with Hayes.

BOSS TWEED'S CONFIDENTIAL CLERK. Elbert A. Woodward, ex-confidential clerk of Boss Tweed, who was arrested in Chicago some three months ago to answer to indictments for forgery and embezzlement, and who has since lain in the New York Tombs, was on Saturday discharged from custody on his own recognizance. He had previously handed over to Mr Peckham a number of important documents to be used as evidence in the forthcoming trial of Tweed, and moreover, transferred to the city and county of New York property amounting to $150,000, besides $50,000 more. The discharge was ordered furnishing security for the restitution of by the Attorney-General that Woodward might testify for the people in the civil suits The Attorney-General also directed that he should not be rearrested upon the civil processes pending against him. No nolle prosequi has been entered in the criminal cases, but it is understood that should Woodward's testimony prove as valuable as expected he will never be brought to trial. The late prisoner has gone to his residence at Norwalk, Conn

There is a degree of meanness in the tactics pursued by the Tilden bureau that is even more contemptible than their dishonesty One of the devices employed industriously of late has been the circulation of squibs, concocted in New York, announcing that this and the other Republican has declared a belief in Tilden's election Chief Justice Waite was the last victim of this falsehood, and he has emphatically denied it, but the bureau sends out several new inventions for every one that is exposed Very dignified business this, for an aspirant for the Presidency!

A Washington special says the Northern Democrats are cracking the party whip with tremendous energy at the Southern Democrats who have declared themselves against war and in favor of the peaceable inauguration of Hayes if he is declared elected Attacks are especially directed at Casey Young of Tennessee and Ben Hill of Georgia

MAINE NEWS.

FROM CAMDEN.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

CAMDEN, Jan. 1. Postmaster Hiram Bass died yesterday of lung fever after an illness of about ten days. He has been Postmaster during the present administration and also from 1841 to 1845, some twenty years in all. He has filled the various town offices and served as Judge of Probate. He was a native of Camden and leaves a wife and son and daughter, both married.

FROM PORTLAND.

Coroner's Verdict.

PORTLAND, Jan. 1. The coroner's inquest on the man killed at the Grand Trunk depot gives a verdict that he was killed by falling while hastening to a train and censures the company for not having a head light to the locomotive, and for the inefficient lighting of the station. They also find the previous reported identifications incorrect. He was an Englishman, named Charles Nixon, whose family reside in Pittsfield, Mass. He was lately at work at Sabattusville, whither he was going, having come from Dover, N. H., with his nephew who identified him.

MARINE DISASTER.

Schooner Wrecked.

DAMARISCOTTA, Jan. 1. The schooner T. R. Hughley, Chandler, master, of Kennebunk from Millbridge for Boston, with timber, went ashore on a small island near the mouth of the Damariscotta river. Friday night. The crew consisted of the captain and two hands. One of the latter, Benjamin Means of Millbridge, was frost bitten and injured severely and died soon after reaching shore. A part of the cargo will be saved. The vessel went to pieces. She was insured.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

The President's Views.

REPORT OF A HERALD INTERVIEWER.

Affairs in the Contested States.

COUNTING THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

The President on the Southern Situation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. A Washington special to the Herald has the following:

The President in an interview alluded to Southern affairs at length. For ten days he had received no letters or telegrams from the contested States, a fact which he looked upon as of the utmost importance as showing a satisfactory state of affairs.—He was, however, fully advised of matters in those States by persons who have just returned from them.

South Carolina.

In regard to South Carolina he said the returns of the Republican Electors seemed to be conceded on all hands. With regard to Edgefield County the facts elicited justified the Returning Board in throwing it out, particularly as the face of the returns showed twice as many votes as there were in the county.

Florida.

In regard to Florida the original face of the returns shows a majority of 43 for Hayes and Wheeler. A mistake was promptly corrected which gave Tilden 138 majority. The throwing out of a county where there had been no legal measures taken for an election left a majority of 100 for Hayes and Wheeler.

Louisiana.

With regard to Louisiana there never had been a fair election since 1860. The action of the Returning Board was final and there was no appeal from its decision.

No Fair Elections South.

Speaking generally he said that with the exception of Delaware there was not a fair election in the South in the sense that they understood fairness in New England. If there was a fair election Maryland would have returned three Republican Congressmen and Missouri, Alabama and Arkansas would have gone Republican.

The State Contests.

He thought Democratic contestants in South Carolina and Louisiana would hold out until the Presidential question was disposed of. If favorable to Tilden they would summarily dispose of their Republican competitors, and if favorable to Hayes they would quietly settle down.

Counting the Electoral Votes.

He gave it as his opinion that his successor would not be appointed before the fourth of March. In his opinion the President of the Senate had power to open and count the Electoral votes.

CITY GOVERNMENTS INAUGURATED.

Boston.

BOSTON, Dec. 1. The City Government organized to-day, Benjamin Pope being chosen President of the Common Council and John T. Clark, chairman of the Board of Aldermen. Mayor Prince was inaugurated and delivered his address, in which he states that the net debt of the city on the 31st of December, 1876, exclusive of water loans, was $13,033,758.01; gross debt, $45,058,151.59. All the cities in this State inaugurated Mayors and organized municipal governments to-day.

NEW YORK CITY.

A Cold New Year's Day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. The weather is quite cold, but pleasant; the rivers are covered with ice, causing considerable ferry detention, and sailing vessels can only move by being towed. The streets are entirely deserted and even the horse cars are running with only half fare. The same can be said of Brooklyn and Jersey City.

Freight Rates.

Another advance of five cents per 100 pounds on freights from Chicago to New York goes into effect to-day on the New York Central, Erie, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads. This will make the rate on grain and flour from Chicago to New York 35 cents and on fourth class freight forty cents. From other points the rates will be as follows on grain and flour to New York: Cincinnati, 30 cents; Cleveland, 25; Indianapolis, 33½; Louisville, 37; St. Louis, 40. An advance on passenger rates will soon be made.

NEW YORK STATE.

Inauguration of Gov. Robinson.

ALBANY, Jan. 1. The largest assemblage ever known here witnessed the inauguration of Gov. Robinson. Ex-Gov. Tilden in a speech said it was a great satisfaction to him to surrender the office to one so able and whose career furnishes assurances of his purpose to prosecute the work to which he (Tilden) had consecrated his two official and three years of private life. Gov. Robinson responded, saying the administration of Tilden was not only endorsed by the citizens of this State, but by a large majority of the citizens of the whole Union who had chosen him as their representative at the head of the Nation. After Robinson's response he was inaugurated in the usual form.

REELECTED.

A Heavy Snow Storm.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 1. The heaviest snow storm ever known here is now prevailing. The snow is 18 inches deep and railroads are blocked.

The Democratic Programme.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. A New Orleans special of last night says the Democrats of the Legislature have decided that the duly returned members should accept their certificates and that members both with and without certificates should to-morrow proceed to the State House in a body and demand admission. Upon a portion being refused, the others will enter and take their seats prepared to make a desperate and exhaustive contest on behalf of their counted out colleagues. Lewis Bush is agreed upon as candidate for Speaker. The result so far as reached allays all fears of a conflict. The Democrats entertain some hope of securing a majority in the Senate.

Organization of the Legislature—The Democrats and their Action—Two Accounts of Affairs in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 1. At 11 A. M. a heavy force of police, with arms, were on duty at the State House. Governor Kellogg and Mr. Packard were besieged by political friends. Nearly all the Republican members of the Legislature were in the building, while the Democratic members and their friends were in caucus at the Democratic headquarters on Canal street. United States troops under arms at their quarters, and United States Marshal Pitkin in his office at the Custom House, which is connected with the State House by telegraph, were ready for any emergency. A considerable crowd congregated at the corner of St. Charles and Canal streets, but there was little excitement.

About noon a Democratic Committee called at the State House and asked that the barricades and police be removed, which Gov. Kellogg declined and the Democrats withdrew. At 12.30 o'clock the Clerk of the House made a similar demand which was likewise refused. He then refused to call the roll, whereupon Louis Sauer, a member from Avoyelles, called the House to order at the request of Secretary of State Weston, and called the rolls. Sixty-eight members answered making a quorum. Without administering to the members the oath the nominations were announced. Ex-Gov. Hahn and Warmouth being the nominees,—Hahn receiving 53 votes was declared elected and took the chair. The Senate was promptly organized by Lieut. Governor Antoine with more than a quorum. During these proceedings about 500 persons were assembled on Royal and St. Louis streets in front and on the side of the State House, who cheered the Democratic committee when it emerged from the State House, but beyond that there were no noisy demonstrations.

The Democratic Legislature met at St. Patrick's Hall, the Senate in the Ladies' parlor, and was called to order by Senator Ogden, a holding over member. Nineteen Senators, including nine holding over members, answered to their names. This is the number required for a quorum and the Democrats claim that another who is sick will act with them making 20, seventeen of whom there is no contest against. The House was called to order about one o'clock by Clerk Trozevant, and 61 members answered to their names on the list as called, which was more than a quorum.—Louis Bush was put in nomination for Speaker and was elected.

Governor Kellogg's Message

is not long, but is very pointed. He refers to the difficulties which have surrounded him. An organized tax resistance, and armed rebellion during the first two years of his administration, and subsequently revolutionary attempts to seize illegal control of the lower House and an effort to displace executive authority by false and frivolous articles of impeachment adopted in violation of plighted faith.

Respecting State finances he says: The total consolidated interest bearing debt when the funding is completed, exclusive of interest coupons due prior to January, 1874, and interest warrants issued therefor amounting in all to about $100,000, will be $11,865,922. The taxation for State purposes when this administration entered into power was 21½ mills on the dollar, with an equal or even greater taxation in most of the parishes for parish purposes. The taxation for all State purposes including schools is now limited by a Constitutional amendment to 14½ mills, and by the law of the State the rate of parish taxation can in no case exceed the rate of the State taxation. The Constitutional amendments limit the expenditures and render null and void all warrants issued in excess of the revenue. The total expenditures of the preceding State administration for the support of the Government from 1869 to 1872, inclusive, were $11,672,005. The total expenditures for the support of the Government during the four years of my administration have been $4,209,825, a saving of $7,412,180. The interest on all the bonds funded up to date has been promptly met at maturity.

The payment of the interest falling due January 2d, 1877, is announced. The political difficulties have rendered the collection of taxes somewhat slow and it has not been thought desirable to hasten the funding of bonds which still remain to be converted. The interest fund is intact and cannot be diverted for any purpose. It is believed that the delinquent taxes to come in will be sufficient to pay the interest on every outstanding bond and also those that yet remain to be funded. The Governor quotes from the tax assessment rolls to show that the assumption that the Southern States cannot prosper under a government elected in strict accordance with the requirements of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States is disproved by facts.

Another Account.

About noon the Democratic members, accompanied by about five hundred persons, called at the State House and demanded admission. The officer on duty replied that the members could enter but the crowd could not. Col. Bush, the spokesman, then called on Clerk Trezevant to clear the obstructions, barricades, police, etc, which prevented the ingress of the members. A formal demand was then made by Trezevant upon Gen. Badger and other officials for their removal, which being declined Col. Bush read a protest and retired.

A copy of this protest was presented by the committee to Gov. Kellogg, who replied: As Chief Magistrate, a conservator to the peace of this State, in the exercise of sound discretion, and in the belief that there was danger of the organization of the General Assembly being interfered with by violent and illegal means, I have deemed it best to station in and about the State House a portion of the Metropolitan police and to direct that the lower part of the building, in which are situated the offices of State Treasurer, Auditor and other officials, and which are easily accessible by means of glass doors and windows opening directly on the streets, shall be secured. I have had no other motive in taking this course but to preserve the peace. No member of either House, no attache of either House will be interfered with in any way.

Soon after the committee left, the clerk Trezevant, entered the Governor's office and made a similar demand. The Governor told him that the few men in the hall of Representatives should be removed. Trezevant said that unless the barricades and policemen were removed from the building so as to allow ingress to all, he would decline to call the House to order and call the roll, to which the Governor replied, "Very well, sir; I think it is absolutely necessary to retain them in order to maintain peace."

After the organization and under a suspension of the rules, a resolution was passed by the Republican House setting forth that armed resistance to the State authority exists in the State, and calling on the President to afford the protection guaranteed by the Constitution.

When the Senate met to-day there was a bare quorum, Senator Hunlet, late Sheriff of Ouachita, was missing and a strict search failed to discover him, although he had answered to his name at the roll call. Soon after, Will Stevens, one of the holding over Democratic Senators, calling on Gov. Kellogg was captured by the Sergeant and taken to the Senate Chamber thus giving a quorum, and a resolution was adopted seating Kelso, who in the last session represented Rapides district, but who was not returned this year by the Board of Canvassers, and Baker, who ran in the district adjoining the parishes of Ouachita and Morehouse. They were seated, provided the Senators returned as elected did not present themselves.

After the Democratic Senate organized to-day a committee consisting of Senators Stevens—a member holding over—and Garland—recently elected was appointed to wait on Governor Kellogg and notify him that the Senate was organized and ready to receive any official communication, and at the same time stating that the reason for organizing at St. Patrick's Hall, and it was while delivering this communication that Stevens was captured by the Sergeant-at-Arms. Garland not having been sworn in and declining to be, was allowed to depart.

The Republicans are jubilant over the recognition of Kellogg and ignoring of McEnery by Senators, some of whom it is said hold their commissions from the latter.

WASHINGTON.

The President's Reception.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1. A disagreeable snow-storm prevails, but the day is being observed as a general holiday. All the offices and places of business are closed and the reception at the Executive Mansion began at 12 o'clock, when the Foreign Ministers were received. Majority of them were accompanied by ladies and the scene in the Blue parlor during the reception was as usual a brilliant affair. Following the Diplomatic corps came members of the Cabinet, Judges of the United States Supreme Court, Senators and Representatives in Congress, Judges of the Court of Claims and others; at noon officers of the Army and Navy, all in full uniform, were received; then following Department officials, associated soldiers of the war of 1812 and the oldest inhabitants. At 1 o'clock the reception of the general public commenced and closed at two. All public officials and hundreds of private citizens are receiving, and callers are numerous.

RALEIGH, Jan. 1. The inauguration of Gov. Vance passed off quietly. A large crowd was in attendance. His address was applauded to the echo.

THE RAILWAY CALAMITY.

STILL MORE HORRIBLE DETAILS.

Scenes of Suffering and Death.

Probable Death of a Cousin of Gov. Hayes.

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 1. An Ashtabula special to the Erie Despatch mentions the following incident: Miss Mary Birchard, of Fayetteville, Vt., cousin to Gov. Hayes, was on the ill-fated train. The uncle from whom the Governor inherited most of his fortune also willed Miss Birchard $20,000. The three years allowed in which to settle up the estate and divide the property having expired, Miss Birchard was on her way to take formal possession of her property. Her name does not appear in the list of the saved and she was probably killed. Her destination was Elyria, Ohio, where her sister lives.

Statement of the Engineer who Escaped.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1. Specials from Cleveland give the following additional incidents of the Ashtabula horror:

Daniel Maguire, engineer of the leading locomotive "Socrates," which escaped, and who is the only unhurt man who saw the whole affair, states that the train was running slow at the time of the accident.—He felt the bridge give way when two car lengths from the west end. He felt it settle down; he had his hand on the throttle and pulled it wide open. The draw-bar connecting the engines was snapped by the sudden jerk. The trucks of his water tank did not clear and settled down, but the opening wide of the throttle saved the engine and the trucks were pulled on. He ran up the track one hundred yards and gave the alarm by repeated whistles and ringing of the bell.

The Train Plunging Through the Bridge.

The second engine, "Columbia," went through the bridge and turned bottom upwards. The express, baggage and passengers followed in a heap, the passenger cars landing on the express cars. All went into the river. The fire first broke out in the last sleeper, which swung over to one side and was soon in a blaze. In two or three minutes the entire wreck was

A Mass of Flames.

The shrieks of the living and the groans of the dying were terrible to hear; but their voices were soon hushed as the flames embraced them. He further says I was one of the first at the wreck. I pulled several out of the ice and helped to extricate some from the debris. One woman was pinned down by her legs on a burning car. Her cries for help were piteous and in despair as the flames encircled her, she shrieked take an axe and

Cut Off My Legs.

but it was impossible to reach her and she was consumed. The paint in the burning cars snapped like powder, scaring many workmen. It is impossible to estimate the number burned, but I think one hundred perished by the flames and water. Many were killed outright. A husband and wife in the burning wreck were held down by obstructions and calmly awaited their fate. I think their lips moved as if in prayer. Neither pen or tongue can describe the horror of the scene. In twenty minutes after the fire started, it was impossible to extricate the passengers.

Another Engineer's Statement.

The engineer of the Columbia, "Pap" Folsom, of Cleveland, says his engine turned bottom up. He was thrown violently through the window of the cab and badly cut. Maguire helped to pick him up, bruised and bleeding. His first words were: "Another Angola horror, Dan." The train was running at the rate of ten miles an hour at the time. The bridge was considered safe. Passenger train No. 6 with two engines had passed safely over at about seven o'clock. His train struck the bridge at 7.32. He thinks the frost and weather and heavy train snapped the bridge. At the time of the accident the storm was at its height. He could not see two car lengths ahead of the engine and this rendered it next to an impossibility to give immediate assistance. Maguire thinks no one would have escaped from the doomed train had not his engine been saved, thus enabling him to give the alarm. Terrible, indeed, would it have been had the Socrates gone over in the blinding, furious storm. No one would have known of the disaster and the next train due at Ashtabula probably would have shared the same fate and thrown into the river.

A Rush to Awful Death.

Another incident was the man who escaped from the wreck with his clothes all ablaze and ran as if mad. The crowd on the bank yelled to him to throw himself in to the snow, but he took no heed and then some one shouted to those near him to knock him down. He was shoved down, but rising instantly turned his face to the burning wreck plunged into it and was lost. It was a case of utter frenzy. It is found that two children of Bliss, the Evangelist are safe at Avon, N. Y. Bliss and wife were on the train, but no trace of their bodies has been found.

Damaging Rumors.

An Ashtabula special says: It is said that objections were made to the investigation of the accident, but the jury was finally summoned and its members propose to arrive at a verdict and withhold condemnation of no one where it is deserved. It is said the fire companies were prevented from throwing water on the burning wreck and the condition of the bridge has been criticised by engineers.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., Jan. 2, (1 A. M.)

Indications.

For New England: Falling barometer, increasing East to North winds, nearly stationary temperature and snow, followed during the afternoon and night by rising barometer, Northwesterly winds and colder, clearing weather. Cautionary signals continue along the coast from North Carolina to Eastport.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

The Hammond revival in Newburyport, Mass., is attended by thousands.

A Mr. Whittier of Keene, N. H., about 53 years of age, is supposed to have perished in the late storm.

President Herrera, of Costa Rica, by a decree, has abolished the press and placed every printing-office in the country under the direct control of the authorities.

Another battle has occurred in the State of Lanca, Republic of Colombia. The Liberals claim the victory, but lost some prominent officers. The losses of each side in the previously reported battle of Garrapota were as follows: Liberals, 600 killed and 1200 wounded; Conservatives, 300 killed and 700 wounded. Of the wounded at least 500 will die.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Attorney General Emery was in town last evening.

The E. & N. A. train was three hours late last evening.

The firemen were all paid off for last year's services yesterday.

We are indebted to Fraser for a dainty New Year's remembrance.

See notice of a dance and oyster supper at Hampden next Thursday evening.

Annual supper and sale of pews at the Universalist Church this (Tuesday) evening.

The milkmen of Bangor have formed an alliance. See their "notice" in another column.

The New Year began finely yesterday morning. At 5 o'clock the mercury was 10° above 0.

The mortuary record shows that six deaths have occurred in the city during the past week.

Judge Peters left the city yesterday to preside over the January term of the Supreme Court at Saco.

The ladies of the North Bangor Sewing Circle will give an entertainment at the Church on Thursday evening.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Hassard, at No. 15 Pine street.

The stores of the dealers in clothing in this city will close every evening at 6 o'clock, from January 1st to March 1st.

We regret to hear that Mr. James M. Davis, Lieutenant of the Jameson Guards, is lying quite dangerously sick with the diphtheria.

The whole of the fire department that is handled by horse power will have been changed from wheels to runners by this evening.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will hold a quarterly meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Council Room, City H ll.

Yesterday afternoon a horse driven by Wm. Hatch started on the top of Hammond street hill and ran down through the market; but Mr. Hatch succeeded in bringing him up before he did any damage.

An old lame horse was abandoned in the street near the store of Messrs. Dean & Pierce, Saturday night, and being too poor and lame to be moved, he was ordered to be killed by the Secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The second sociable of the Universalist Society, given at Music Hall last evening, was largely attended, the galleries being crowded full, and as many as could be accommodated occupied the floor. The refreshments and music were excellent and everybody enjoyed the occasion fully.

OUR CARRIER BOYS were handsomely treated yesterday by those to whom they have, during the year, brought the paper and are duly grateful for the kind remembrance which will be of very material value to some of them. During the year no change has been made in their number, all having performed a full year's work, which is a somewhat rare occurrence.

THE GLOBE HOTEL. As we have already announced, that portion of Emerson's new block on Main street, above the first floor will be occupied as a hotel. Mr. J. E. Harriman, the former proprietor of the Harriman House, has leased it and will name it The Globe Hotel, opening it to the public on or about the first of February. It will be newly furnished throughout, supplied with Holly water, gas, Finger's Electric Annunciator and all modern improvements.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS. On yesterday, the custom of making New Year's calls, was extensively indulged in, and all the hacks and coaches to be obtained were employed in taking the callers about the city. One party of young gentlemen had four gray horses attached to the coach, with footmen, etc., and another had their coach and horses decorated with flags, the driver and footmen in a fancy livery, and at each place they called, the gorgeously arrayed footmen unrolled a long strip of carpeting for the occupants of the vehicle to walk over. Their cards were antique, and as a burlesque, their turnout was most excellent.

CLERK OF COURTS. With the beginning of the year the new Clerk of Courts for Penobscot County, J. H. Burgess, Esq., took possession of the office and entered on the duties of the position. The retiring Clerk, Ezra C. Brett, Esq., has held the office for the past twelve years and his ability and efficiency have won the most cordial encomiums of the Bench and Bar. His retirement from the post he has so acceptably filled and in which experience has rendered him so useful, is much regretted by the profession, but Mr. Burgess will have the best wishes of all in entering upon his new duties, and we can wish him nothing better than that he may prove as successful and popular as his predecessor.

FIRE COMPANIES. Last evening the following hose companies of our Fire Department held their annual meetings and elected officers as follows:

Union Hose. John Mason, Foreman; Eli Worthing, 2d Foreman; J. Haley, 3d Foreman; John Lynch, Clerk and Treasurer; T. Murray, Assistant Clerk; M. Moriarty, Steward; J. B. Charlton, J. Fahey and J. Cannon, Standing Committee.

Hook and Ladders. George D. Lunt, Foreman; Joseph Mann, 2d Foreman; Augustus Fogg, 3d Foreman; W. Staples, Clerk and Treasurer; Charles Clark, driver.

Elijah Low No. 6—Thos. A. Williams, Foreman; John L. Landers, 2d Foreman; Richard S. Davis, 3d Foreman; E. W. Corson, Clerk and Treasurer; Frank Libby, Steward; Jefferson Drinkwater, Leonard Johnson, Andrew B. Finnigan, Standing Committee; Chas. Williams Assistant Clerk; Wm. H. Banks, Assistant Steward.

Eagle Hose No. 3—Edward Jordan, Foreman; John W. Sleeper, 2d Foreman; Michael Thunning, 3d Foreman; Charles W. Lambert, Clerk; Daniel Noonan, Assistant Clerk; Geo. G. Tidsbury, Treasurer; Frank J. Cluff, Steward; Edward Jordan, James Noonan and Frank J. Cluff, Finance Committee.

Union Hose Company have now an elegant new two wheeled carriage, weighing 350 pounds, with a reel for 500 feet of hose, which they have had built at their own expense for use during the winter. The carriage is from the shop of Mann & Chaplin, is thoroughly built in all respects, nicely painted by Stanley & King, and has an elegant stock silver bell attached to the tongue by Frank Stetson. The Company by its composition of able, active men who turn out promptly and work faithfully at fires, and this providing themselves with good and extra apparatus is worthy of some recognition by our citizens.

The Hooks and Ladders will be put on a sled to-day, and the carriage will be thoroughly repaired for the summer campaign.

The companies were invited to an oyster supper by their newly elected officers last evening, and all had a merry time.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO ROB

James McAloon's Arraignment—His Bail Placed at $10,000—The Prisoner Committed for Trial—Mr. Hoyt Held as a Witness.

The details of the attempted robbery of John B. Hoyt, of St. John, by James McAloon, of this city, on Saturday night last, published Monday, were substantially correct as shown by the evidence introduced at the arraignment of McAloon for an assault with intent and rob the St. John man. Hoyt was the first witness called and told his story in a straightforward manner, it being virtually as given in our issue of yesterday. John McCart, one of the Penobscot Exchange hackmen, testified to seeing McAloon and Hoyt together at the Exchange and to seeing them go out together. Patrick Quinn said he saw two men talking in the Exchange, but could not swear they were the two. Marshal Walker and officer Tracey testified as to the finding and arrest of McAloon.

McAloon next took the stand and said he met this man and they went out and took a drink, after which they started out together and went up State street. When they arrived in the vicinity of the residence of Charles Sterns, Esq., McAloon says some words arose which ended in a fight, and the bruising the heads of both showed. This story of McAloon's is regarded as somewhat more than ordinarily gauzy, even for a Police Court yarn. Judge Goodenow, after hearing the evidence, placed McAloon's bail for his appearance at the February term of the Supreme Court at $10,000, and the prisoner in default thereof was taken to jail to await trial. Hoyt was ordered to recognize in the sum of $500 for his appearance as a witness, and was committed.

On Sunday night it is said that a party of roughs, friends of McAloon, collected about the Exchange hoping for some chance to get Hoyt in their clutches, of which there was little prospect, however, but he was removed to a private boarding-house by the Marshal.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BANGOR.

I have consented to give one or more free lectures in Bangor on the varied and invaluable resources of Louisiana, its topography and climate. In this I feel that I am acting as a friend, not only of my adopted State, but of the whole country. It is highly important to the people of the United States that the undeveloped treasures to be found in the soil, the forests, the mines and waters of the South should be more completely unfolded to the world. Professor Hilgard, who some years since, made a report on the geological and agricultural resources of Mississippi, made the following remarks in relation to Louisiana:

"Louisiana, though one of the earliest colonies of the continent, is as yet one of the few States concerning whose aspect and resources no reliable information is accessible and whose climate and physical peculiarities are grossly misunderstood."

I have made Louisiana my study more than a quarter of a century and have lived in the Gulf States thirty-five years. I think our sectional troubles will, in a few years subside, and that the North and the South will again shake hands more cordially than at any time since the memory of middle-aged men. In the meantime I desire to do all in my power in the interest of peace and harmony between the States, and I believe it to be a favor to all sections to spread information among farmers, manufacturers, capitalists and men of enterprise in relation to the hidden treasures of the South that may be brought forth to increase the National wealth. I shall lecture at the City Hall, to-morrow (Tuesday) at 7 P. M. DANIEL DENNETT.

Bangor, Jan. 1, 1877.

Police Court.

Yesterday James Harrington came before the court for drunkenness. It being his second offence he was sentenced for 90 days, but the mittimus was suspended.

James McAloon for an assault on John B Hoyt, was bound over in $10,000 bonds to appear at the next term of the Supreme Court. Mr. Hoyt was put under $500 bonds to appear as a witness against said McAloon.

The Crusade.

Mr. Editor The reception held by the Ladies' Crusade at the Reading Room yesterday, was a very pleasing event. The tables were bountifully laden with good things and the coffee so rich, clear and pure that would satisfy the most fastidious. As if to crown the day with happiness and make it a perfect success, a New Year's gift of forty dollars was received from the Central Church through their pastor Rev. Dr. Field, for which the Crusade are very grateful. This kind appreciation of their efforts gives them new strength to continue their labors for fallen humanity.

CATARRH.

From C. W. Thomas, of Brattleboro', Vt. "For ten or twelve years past I have been troubled much of the time with Catarrh, which has kept up a continual irritation of the throat and lungs, attended with severe Cough. During this time I have tried many of the popular remedies of the day without the least benefit. The past winter I commenced the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, the beneficial effects of which have been very great, as after having used three bottles I find myself entirely cured of my disease. The BALSAM has also been used in a severe case of Asthma and Cough which came within my observation, which yielded at once to the remedy. I recommend its use to the afflicted generally."

WORDS OF WARNING!

During the present year, as in the past, the grave will close over thousands, simply because they neglect the means which would restore them to health. Meet the fell destroyer at the threshold, and dispute his invasion by that more than wonderful medicine, Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound. There is no cough or cold, case of asthma, bronchitis, bloodspitting, weak lungs, croup or whooping cough which will not yield more readily to this great BOTANICAL remedy than any other medicine. If you would avoid disappointment, and be speedily cured, ask your Druggist for Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound. Trial size, 10 cents. Regular sizes, 50 cents and One Dollar.

Sold by Wm. E. Mann, J. F. Patten, N. S. Harlow, Bangor. R. B. Stover, Bucksport.

Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup is perfectly safe. Extremely palatable. No physic required. Costs 25 cents. Try it. jan1 1m SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEA WEED TONIC, AND MANDRAKE PILLS.—These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and proved the fallacy of several maxims which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical science. The false supposition that "Consumption is incurable" deterred physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable. It is now proved, however, that Consumption can be cured, and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone; and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

Dr. Schenck himself, who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years, was supposed, at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and, since his recovery, many thousands similarly affected have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his principal office, Corner Sixth and Arch Sts., Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists. eod1m jan1

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

CIRCULAR SAWS!

Made Without Hammering.

The "SIMONDS" saws are straightened by means of heat and pressure, and without hammering, and are warranted superior to hammered saws for the following reasons:

The success of the process requiring a uniform heat, insures a perfectly uniform temper, and they file and set in a more satisfactory manner.

Being free from uneven strain or buckle, they stand up to their work better.

As the steel is left in a natural condition by this process, the saws retain their original shape, or position, as they are reduced in size, thus avoiding the necessity and expense of re-hammering.

Being made of a higher quality of steel than it is practical to use by the old method, they hold an edge longer.

Large circular mill saws can be run at any reasonable speed with equally good results,—saws 30 inches in diameter having been tested from 400 to 1250 turns a minute with perfect satisfaction,—while hammered saws must be hammered differently for different speeds.

The "SIMONDS" saws received at the Centennial, a Medal, Diploma, and the following report of the Board of Judges:

"Circular Saws of beautiful finish and form, and originality in the method of manufacture."

A trial of the "SIMONDS" Saws will satisfy any mill man that he cannot afford to use hammered saws.

WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY,

CARRITT'S NEW YEAR'S ADDRESS.
TO THE PATRONS OF THE
Daily Whig and Courier,
January 1, 1877.

Another Year!—Old Time drives fast,
His steeds are flecked with foam,
Mid torrid heat or frigid blast,
The course is all his own
Nor tears, nor prayer, nor work undone
Can stay his swift career,
His mile-stones are the circling suns
That measure off the year!

Another Year!—'tis but a grain
Of the eternal sands,—
A drop in ocean's vast domain,
That clasps the solid lands,—
A speck on the horizon's rim,
That bounds the azure sky,—
A mote, receding faint and dim
In God's eternity!

But measured by the hopes and fears,
That make the life of man,
How grandly swell the fleeting years,
That fill our mortal span!
How glow the hours when throbs of joy
Course through the heart and brain,
And slow the weary moments go,
That measure days of pain!

When living, human hearts become
The dial-plate of Time,
The hours that round its circle run
With wondrous lustre shine,
And through the bliss of sweet success
I hear triumphant song,
A higher joy great souls confess—
"To suffer and be strong."

A Century has rolled around
Our broad Republic's base,
And patriots hallowed toil has crowned
With all-becoming grace,
The arts of Peace and Industry,
In one harmonious throng,
Have sung in chorus full and free,
Her grand Centennial song.

From spacious crystal palaces
That decked the Fairmount plain,
Shone forth to grateful millions' eyes
The type of wide domain,
While from the granite's chiseled pile—
A nt Memorial Hall,—
Columbia, with benignant smile,
Extends her shield o'er all!

The world never saw so grand a sight,
Where every art and trade
Stood forth beneath the century's light,
In choicest garb arrayed,
From loom and lathe, from shop and mill,
By brain, hand and steam,
The product of the nation's skill
On every side were seen

There gleamed the wealth of richest mines
Earth stores within her breast,
And gaily waved in golden sheaves
The products of the West
And there 'twixt the nations sheaves,
The mighty engine's play
Set it glorious life to every part
Of vast machinery!

And there in courtly homage blent,
The nations of the world,
With fair and generous compliment
Their blazoned flags unfurled
Art spoke to art, and hand grasped hand,
As side by side they stood
And ranged the works of every land
In glorious brotherhood!

Great Britain with her colonies
Was here to grace the scene,
And from the grandly pictured walls
Smiled her most gracious Queen
The vast Canadian forest
Responded with its pines,
And gilded obelisks portrayed
Her rich Australian mines.

France brought her latest fashions,
And tapestries so fine,
And piled in stately pyramids
Her fabrics of the loom,
While Russia wrapt in furry wealth,
And her majestic might,
Her story told in webs of gold,
And gorgeous malachite

And wondrous in art-tie skill
In curious work and rare
Large space did German gems fill
And richest porcelain ware.
The Viking of old Norway's coast
Stood proudly on his keel,
And Sweden's art made good its boast
In forms of twisted steel

But Italy—home of art and song,—
In most abundant measure,
Displayed to the admiring throng
Her sculptured marble treasure,
And Montezuma's troubled land,
And that of Incas fame,
Showed sample ores of those vast stores
That lured the lust of Spain

Old China charmed with patient skill,
And Japanese bazaars
Spread out their pictured lacquered ware,
Bronze and grotesque jars
The Ottoman Turk lounged on his work,
And Egypt, on the Nile,
Sent models of her pyramids,
Besides her crocodile

Thus every kingdom every clime,
And islands of the sea,
Their tribute laid upon the shrine
Of Art and Industry,
While Woman's work, of every zone,
The splendid pageant crowned,
And from her fair Pavilion throne
Flung beauty all around!

Oh Heaven! bless our noble land
With centuries of peace,
Quench every discord's wasting brand,
From passion's sway release,
In closer bond knit State to State
Disperse and in right,
And every form of wrong and hate
Be'neath Freedom's light!

May virtue, wisdom, intelligence
The hearts of millions mold,
And wise and lofty statesmanship
The helm of empire hold
So shall the next Centennial see
The grandest fruit of Time—
Columbia, great, and strong, and free,
In majesty sublime!

A year has sped and with it fled
Some dear familiar faces,
Whose daily walk among us shed
The light of Christian graces,
The veteran teacher, all whose years
To nascent minds were given,
Who ruled in love, and not by fears,
His Master meets in heaven.

And he our noble citizen,
Who grew up with the town,
Shall ever by his fellow-men
Be held in fair renown
A well-spent life of enterprise,
An honor, without stain,
A heart, enlarged with sympathies,
Shall gild and guard his name.

Time's overturns and changes
Ask all earthly treasure,
And false as well as fleeting,
All mean and selfish pleasure;
But generous lives and noble
Shall not return to dust,
But brightly shine forever
In memory's sacred trust.

The Old Year, freed from duty,
Lies down in sweet repose,
The New Year comes in beauty,
Wrapt in its crystal snows;
May each heart share the brightness,
That gilds its opening reign,
And may its spotless whiteness
On every soul remain.
